TUITION ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

We, the church parish of Ascension of Our Lord, provide financial support to our parish school. In addition, we have established three levels of tuition rates reflecting each school family's status with the parish. At registration you will apply for one of these rates.

PARISHIONER TUITION RATE (RAS – Registered, Active, Supporting)

- Catholic families can receive the Parishioner tuition rate if the following criteria are met:
  - a. You are registered with AOL Church parish and have an envelope number.
  - b. You attend Mass faithfully.
  - c. You support the parish financially with an average weekly pledge of $15 for the calendar year.
  - d. You participate in a church ministry or school volunteer activity.
- Catholic families belonging to another church parish can receive the Parishioner tuition rate if the following criteria are met:
  - a. Your parish has no school or openings for your child
  - b. You present a letter with the registration signed by your pastor which verifies that you are a registered, supporting parishioner and qualify for a voucher from your home parish.
  - c. Your home parish agrees to pay the $350 voucher by filling out the Parish Affiliation Form which is signed by you & your pastor.

NON-PARISHIONER TUITION RATE

- Catholic families from another church parish will qualify for the Non-Parishioner tuition rate if a letter from their home parish is submitted with the registration verifying their good standing (registered, active, and supporting) in that parish.
- If your home parish does not pay the voucher but you meet the above criteria, then you will qualify for the Non-Parishioner tuition rate.

NON-CATHOLIC TUITION RATE

- Any family, Catholic or non-Catholic, and not meeting the criteria for Parishioner or Non-Parishioner tuition rate will qualify for the Non-Catholic tuition rate.

I fully understand the above criteria regarding the Catholic Parishioner, Catholic Non-Parishioner and Non-Catholic tuition rates. I also understand that the financial office reviews my contribution record quarterly. If I do not fulfill my RAS (Registered, Active, Supporting) obligation and after a timely reminder, I may be switched to the Non-Catholic tuition rate for the remainder of the year.
